Already in ancient history Paros was famous for its semi-transparent marble, which is still quarried today.

Parikia, the capital, is one of the main harbours of the Cyclades with frequent connections to almost all other islands.

The island lies within approx. 2,5 hours (with a high-speed boat) or 4 hours (normal ferry) distance from Piraeus.

Paros Island has a lot to offer its visitors! Whether you prefer a quiet, peaceful holiday enjoying the beautiful nature and traditional Greek atmosphere, an active or educational one, or you would just like to party, you'll definitely find what you are looking for.
