

Zante the third in size of the islands of the Ionian Sea, the green island of poetry, of song and love, the native land of D. Solomos, the writer of the Greek National Anthem but also that of St. Dennis, the Patron Saint.

Rich in beauty and tradition, both historical and cultural, Zante is the "ideal" of any traveler with an exploring mind.

... When the ferry arrives at the port, especially at dusk, it feels as though you enter the port of Venice.

On the one side you will see the lit church bells of the St. Dennis Cathedral and on the other side the picturesque

Main Town with the snake like road to the hill of Bohali (2km) and the Venetian Fortress(3km).

{gallery}zakynthos,single=MuseumofZakynthos.jpg,salign=left,connect=sige{/gallery}

{gallery}zakynthos,single=Zante-08.jpg,salign=left,connect=sige{/gallery}

{gallery}zakynthos,single=library.jpg,salign=left,connect=sige{/gallery}

The Byzantine Museum of Zakynthos

The Byzantine Museum of Zakynthos is situated in Solomou Square, in Zakynthos town.

Here you can admire a rich collection of hagiographies from the Byzantine times to the 19th century, He

The statue of Dionysios Solomos, National Poet of Greece

The statue is situated in the main Square of town, that got his name (Solomou Square).

He wrote the "Hymn to Freedom" that become the Greek National Hymn.

The Cultural Center of Zakynthos and the Library

Another imposing building next to church of Saint Nikolaos on the Mole, houses the Cultural Center of

The Library includes a small art gallery, small dolls with local costumes, photographic material and the h